

Proverbs 22 4

By humility and the fear of the Lord Are riches and honor and life.

Devotional

Jesus help me to be an obedient servant to God our Father as you were. In Your name I pray, Amen. Reverential awe, admiring and submissive fear is the basis for all spiritual knowledge and wisdom. An unbeliever may make statements about life and truth, but he does not have true or ultimate knowledge until he is in a saving relationship of obedient awe with God. The fear of the Lord is a state of mind in which one's own attitudes, will, feelings, deeds, and goals are exchanged for God's. Bible Footnotes
