

Romans 12 3

For I am telling every single one of you, through the grace that has been given to me, not to have exaggerated ideas about your own importance. Instead, develop a sober estimate of yourself based on the standard which God has given to each of you, namely, trust.

Devotional

Developing a sober estimate of ourselves that is against boasting and conceit includes every single one of us, because a person committed to doing God's will is easy prey to thinking we are more important than the person sitting right next to us, whoever they may be. Yeshua help me to be humble in everything I do throughout my day. I want you to be proud of me as a child of God, give me the courage to extend my hand of kindness to those who may not be my first choice, who are less fortunate than I am, who may not appear as "pretty" or "acceptable" by the worlds standards. Give me a heart like yours. In your precious name I pray, Amen.
